The Few, The Faithful, The EMAW Guys

I really had no idea what to expect when I signed up to be part of the EMAW program at Ada Bible Church.

Until now, I had not really been a consistent participant in any of the men’s ministries offered by Ada, or at any previous church.

What primarily attracted me to the EMAW study was the focus on marriage and children as viewed through the Jesus lens. I have been happily married for over 21 years; my wife and I have a boy who’s 14 and a girl who’s 10 years old. I knew that I could be, should be, doing more to be more like Christ as a husband and father. But, how? And, what’s all this about Quiet Time, memory verses and Bible study? I’d never really done that either in my past.

Every Man a Warrior has provided me with the necessary skills, templates and structure for me to learn more about Jesus and his teachings and how to relate those to everyday living, and my faithful responsibility as a father and husband. The EMAW program and the men in our group have taught me, challenged me, shared with me and have grown me spiritually to be a better man. I really enjoy the weekly banter, prayer requests, Quiet Time/Chair Time, teachings and new friendships with my EMAW group.

EMAW has helped to bring a much needed balance to my life and improved my understanding of how to follow Jesus.
