

EMAW Testimonials

From the Desk of Scott Norton

Every Man A Warrior (EMAW) has changed my life. I always thought of myself as a Christian, but I was always afraid that I didn't know enough. I was afraid to pray in public, afraid to witness to others and afraid to speak up in small groups in fear of not knowing the real meaning of what was being discussed. My only saving grace was I truly did love Jesus Christ and knew I wanted to serve Him. I just didn't know how.

Whereas, I thought EMAW would educate me on how to deal with my fears and allow me to work through them, it actually did just the opposite. EMAW exposed my fears as being spot on. The problem was not me and it definitely was not Jesus Christ! The problem was in my education. So many men become Christians and have the best of intentions. They simply don't know how to begin or what to do next. This is why EMAW is so important.

EMAW taught me how to pray, how to study, how to dig deeper, how to ask the right questions and ultimately – how to be a man of God. After I began to learn these basics, I developed a newfound love for Scripture and was eager to read more and share what I knew. As I began taking EMAW into other men's lives, I began to realize I love helping others learn how to be better men through the EMAW principles. I only wish I had learned this years ago. It would have saved me so much heartache, time and money.

The Bible is God's infallible word and it has all of the answers. EMAW teaches you how to read, interpret and apply the Bible. I am so thankful for experiencing this resource; it has made me a better man in every facet of my life. Thank You Brother!
