Reflections from the Inside

2018

EMAW Table Leader – PA State Correctional Inst.

I truly believe that in this life God places his children in certain places and or situations that test, strengthen, expand, and mold the individual. We all have a purpose and only through training, discipline, and understanding are we able to successfully serve and complete our purpose giving. I am not fully the man that God has set for me to be, but I am in training to become that man and Every Man a Warrior has been a major asset to my training.

Every Man a Warrior has provided me with the tools to accomplish things in my life that I once thought were highly impossible. Becoming a Godly man was never a goal I believed I could achieve. Through Every Man a Warrior, each man is provided with not only the tools to be a Godly man, but actions to take and ways to solve daily situations. It also teaches us how to be a great father and a great husband. Every Man a Warrior provides us with the tools to be the spiritual leaders in our homes.

Every Man a Warrior has helped me to recognize my flaws and shortcomings yet provided me with the courage and tools to fix them. My relationships with my children are better and my daughter finally has opened up to me. Those father/son and father/daughter one-on-one times have really helped build my relationships with my children. I've learned how to build my children up even when they make mistakes. I have also learned how to listen and talk to my children. It has truly been an amazing thing to witness the transformation in the relationships between my children and me.

For years I was a demanding husband who never took in consideration the thoughts and feelings of my wife. I lived by the "I'm the man and what I say goes" motto and never realized how much I was hurting the woman I took vows to protect, honor and love. I never gave up my life and rights for my wife.

Every Man a Warrior has taught me that being a husband is more than being Mr. Big Shot. Being a husband means to show my love for Jesus by caring for my wife, to deeply love her, to show her honor, try to understand her and give up my life and rights for her. Every Man a Warrior taught me my true marriage commitment. By applying that attitude to my marriage, it has been better than I could ever imagine.

I have memorized more scriptures in the Bible through Every Man a Warrior than I ever have in my whole life. I memorized one scripture growing up and that was Psalm 23. Now I know over twenty scriptures by heart. EMAW has taught me how to memorize scriptures and have a proper quiet time with the Lord through prayer, reading, studying, and learning the commands, sin to avoid, promise to claim and emphasizing words in every scripture. My quiet times alone have helped me to understand the Bible better than I ever have.

I am truly thankful for everything that EMAW has provided with and I praise God for giving me the opportunity to be a part of something that I believe every man should be a part of. EMAW has not only taught me how to be a Godly man, it has taught me how to be a man of God.
