God is with me even when I mess up!

Since September I have been leading 3 groups (2 of them Nate Hickman is co-leading). The guys are so very faithful to do the memory and quiet times.

The group I am most impressed with is the high school teenaged boy's group. We are almost finished with lesson 5 of book 2. I am going to have them initiate Son/Father time. These guys are exceptional! We meet for the lesson on Sundays during the 2nd service at church. They also initiated meeting Wednesday afternoons for scripture memory and finishing the lesson. If they can't meet in person, they Zoom. They very much see these lessons as training and preparing for their future. In fact, during the WAR prayer, my grandson prayed this (he was doing the "A"). "God, I confess I will mess up and make some mistakes when I get married but, with this class and your word, You will be with us and it will be good." I thought that was an interesting "admit".

Also, if book 4 is out when we finish these 3 groups, I see no reason that we would not do it as well. In fact, one group consists of men in their twenties and a couple of the guys have already told me they wrestle with porn pretty regular.

I hope Christmas has been refreshing for you and your loved ones. We are so thankful our son is pursuing the Lord and, we celebrated 50 years marriage last Sunday.

May God continue to bless you us all and bring good fruit in our lives.
