“Making Disciples for Jesus”

Earlier this year, I had the privilege of walking with and discipling Joshua, using the EMAW workbook number one. After completing the last chapter of book one, I asked Joshua to share how this journey had impacted his relationship and daily, quiet times with God.

He responded with the following comments:

"Completing Book One of the EMAW series has helped me to develop a better devotional time and has led me closer to God. I have learned how to have a strong devotional time, as well as the importance of making time for good devotions. I hope these skills continue to grow and that my relationship with God will grow even stronger as we go through Book 3. I am looking forward to what God has in store for me."

As Joshua's pastor, it has been my honor and privilege to journey with him through all of Book One. We recently completed the third chapter of Book Three. With great dedication, Joshua has memorized all of his scripture verses and we continue to review them each week. My heartbeat is to fulfill my personal assignment as it relates to the Great Commission. To be blessed with a young man as hungry for THE Word of God and inquisitive as Joshua has been a sincere blessing. I also look forward to what the Holy Spirit has in store for us as we continue our journey.

Thanks so much for all of your support and please know that I am a huge fan of the EMAW series, and clearly recognize them as a very solid and productive resource to have while making disciples for Jesus.

Humbly Serving for Him,
Tom Fredericks
